Hi Jesus,

Let's compare two houses, one brand new and one built in the 1980s.

The value for one of them actually grew by a jaw-dropping 180% during a 10-year period.

Which do you think is the profitable vs poor choice?

InvestorKit's lead research analyst, Junge Ma, sheds light on why you shouldn't get too excited about some houses, as there is a specific factor you should always keep your eyes on...

And to find out what that factor actually is, be sure to tune in to this episode today!
